

For Thompson and Rutherford's experiments:

	Thompson	Rutherford
What was the claim?
Raw Data / Observations
Evidence (how the data are explained)
Theory/Model
Picture of model

Why do you think we use models (either physical or mental) to represent atoms? Is one model more correct than another? Are some models better suited for some purposes than others?